TAX TRAINING CALENDAR

Why Should you attend our masterclasses? the masterclasses will be delivered by our experts on the subject matter who are specialized in the specific tax heads.

The trainings will benefit senior management and key decision makers, that is, Directors, CEOs, CFOs, Financial Managers, Financial Controllers and other senior roles.

Extra Benefits

CPD Points: Members of ICPAK and other professional bodies will be awarded points upon application for attending any of the training sessions.

NITA Reimbursement: We are registered as a trainer with National Industrial Training Authority. The Institute's registration number is NITA/TRN/1171. Participants who are registered levy contributors should apply to NITA for reimbursement of their fees. Please note that this is applicable for Kenyan citizens only and subject to NITA regulations.

Remember that to qualify you should apply to NITA for approval prior to the date of the conference. Further details can be obtained from their website.

Apart from open market trainings, the Taxwise tax academy also offers tailored in-house training courses designed to meet the specific needs of your organization.

These cost-effective programs will be customized to your requirements and delivered at your preferred location.

If you are interested in learning more about our in-house training solutions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We would be happy to discuss your specific needs and provide you with a customized proposal.
